

A selection of second order questions

1. What role does imagination play in creativity?
2. What qualities make a good student?
3. Is concrete knowledge better than theoretical knowledge?
4. What qualities make a good teacher?
5. What is the relation between reflection and creativity?
6. How does the ability to access knowledge from different subjects change the project creation phase?
7. How does access to technology change the learning experience?
8. What qualities make a good learning environment?
9. If you want to think seriously about something, do you need to disconnect from the internet?
10. What is the relationship between innovation and hard work?
11. How can students learn to learn?
12. How important is it that a piece of art or writing evoke a feeling of empathy in the reader?
13. How important is detailed planning in the building of a creative project?
14. Does truth transcend culture?
15. What are the dangers of equating personal experience and knowledge?
16. Do new technologies affect the beliefs of a society?
17. How does the diversity of the student body impact their learning?
18. What role does personal experience play in your formation of new knowledge?
19. How reliable are our feelings and emotions?
20. What motivates you to excellence?
21. How can you avoid analysis paralysis in decisions?
22. What role does communication play in empathy?
23. Is there an optimal amount of information to look for when researching?
24. Can a work of art capture the uniqueness of an experience better than words?
25. What is the difference between knowledge and wisdom?
26. What is the relation between theory and practice?
27. What have you learned that you think everyone should know?
28. How do you encourage others to participate in an activity?
29. Do you agree that in the internet age knowing where to find the answers is more important than knowing the answers?
30. Do you think that modern technology is making it easier or more difficult for the rich and powerful to influence ordinary people's beliefs?
31. How important is it to focus on a particular task without any kind of interruption?
32. If you want to think seriously about something, do you need to disconnect from the internet?

33. What makes an elegant solution?
34. What makes a great project?
35. How does collaboration contribute to a great project?
36. When is trial and error an appropriate problem-solving technique?
37. What are the qualities of effective research?
38. What is the fundamental element of social justice?
39. How can you motivate people to care about social justice?
40. How can you tell which brainstorming techniques work best for you?
41. What makes a good justification for a social justice initiative?
42. How can we make changes to help build more social justice into education?
43. Are there steps you can take to guarantee you will be proud of your project?
44. What can you do to guarantee failure in a project?
45. Is it always true that if you wish to succeed, you will fail?
46. When is “not failing” the same as success, and when are they different?
47. Is there a possibility of intelligent failure?
48. How can you minimize the damage of failure?
49. What makes great feedback within a group?
50. What is an essential prerequisite for good collaboration?
51. What makes something memorable in the long-term?
52. What will make you happy in the long-term?